ADMINISTRATOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Co-Workers:

I will start by saying I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday season.

As we are entering a new Decade, I hope it is the start of wonderful and new ideas for our Lodge.

We are trying to come up with some new and exciting ideas to keep the lodge on its feet. We will continue with the Raw Clam Bar and hopefully we can get Corn Hole started in the Spring. A Mystery Night is also in the works, a Spaghetti Dinner, a Mardi Gras in February, and more. If you have any ideas, or if you would like to run an event on an ongoing weekly or monthly basis, speak to a Board Member.

Thanks to those members that helped run events. Volunteers are important and looked up to in our lodge.

Please keep supporting OUR LODGE so we can have a GREAT 2020.

Elections will be in a few months so if you want to run for an office, information and sign-up sheets will be posted.

See you at the lodge.

Administrator

SENIOR REGENTS MESSAGE

Greeting co-workers,

I want to take this opportunity to wish all of my Moose family a very happy and prosperous New Year.

The W.O.T.M. has been very busy during the latter part of 2019.

A. Chapter 1248 collected and boxed nonperishable food to give to 10 local grade school families. This was to provide the children with extra food to hold them over the long Thanksgiving weekend.

- B. We provided transportation and lunch for 100 lower income seniors from our area. The event also included a visit from Santa and a gift. We had live music and a sing-a-long with Anita.
- C. We collected and distributed clothing, linens and food to be local homeless population in a neighboring town.
- D. Two members of our chapter, Debster and Sandy, went to Washington D.C. for the laying of the Christmas wreaths in Arlington cemetery.
- E. We baked and packaged Christmas cookies for Simon's Kitchen.

On Going Events:

- 1. Stretch and Sip will resume in April of 2020.
- 2. The fifth Friday dinner will be held on January 31st. By popular request we will be serving homemade pot pie. Our pot pies have been a consistent favorite. The meal also includes salad and dessert. Dinner starts at 5pm. Please come out and join us.

We would love to get your suggestions for winter activities. Here are some activities that have been suggested; Line Dancing, Square Dancing, a craft night, game night, painting party, pot luck or progressive dinner.

Please send your thoughts and ideas by coming to a meeting (second or fourth Wednesday) or send them to Chapter 1248@mooseunits.org

With warmest regards,
Paula Sturm
Sr. Regent
